

For Immediate Release

CEO of Deer Lake Regional Airport Appointed as President of Atlantic Canada Airports Association

CHARLOTTETOWN (June 4th, 2008) – Jamie Schwartz, CEO of the Deer Lake Regional Airport in Newfoundland has been appointed as President of the Atlantic Canada Airports Association.

“Mr. Schwartz brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to the position” noted Executive Director Monette Connaughton. “He has been a member of the Association since 2000 and during this time the Deer Lake Regional Airport has experienced significant passenger growth and development. We look forward to Jamie’s leadership in addressing the key issues that our airports in Atlantic Canada are facing.”

Jamie Schwartz will be President of the Association that represents 13 airports in Newfoundland, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island. He is joined on the Executive with Vice-President, Keith Collins, St. John’s International Airport and Treasurer, Doug Newson, Charlottetown Airport Authority, other Directors of the Board include; Tom Ruth, Halifax Stanfield International Airport, Jennifer Henry, Bathurst Regional Airport, Bernard LeBlanc, Saint John Airport and Lawrence MacPherson, Sydney Airport.

The Atlantic Canada Airports Association provides a collective voice for its member airports to undertake collaborative action on policy issues affecting our airports and communities.

Jamie Schwartz

Jamie Schwartz has been manager and chief operating officer of the Deer Lake Regional Airport Authority since 2000. From 1995-99 he served as general manager of the 1999 Canada Winter Games held in Corner Brook. Mr. Schwartz is also Chair of the Marble Mountain Development Corporation. He holds a bachelor of arts degree in physical education and recreation management from Acadia University in Wolfville, Nova Scotia.

- 30 -

Media Inquiries:

Monette Connaughton,

Executive Director, Atlantic Canada Airport Association

Phone: (902) 628-4403 Cell: (902) 314-5651